Great Start Collaborative – Wayne's Home Visitor Alliance Quarterly Meeting

Date – Friday, March 26, 2010

Time – 8:30 a.m. – 12:00 noon

Place – University of Michigan- Dearborn
Fairlane Center South, Dining Room D
19000 Hubbard Drive

The March meeting will focus on:

Social Emotional Assessment and Screening- The What's, Why's and How's!

Come and join this interactive presentation that will use small group reflection, case studies and group discussions to navigate the intricacies of social-emotional screening and assessment. Learn about what screening and assessment really is, what quality tools are available, how to involve families in the process, how to choose a particular tool and why screening and assessment is so important to the well being of infants and toddlers.

Presented by: Mary Mackrain, M.Ed., IMH-E® (IV)
Infant Mental Health Mentor (Policy), CCEP Program and Training Director
Michigan Department of Community Health
Mental Health Services to Children and Families

Join us on March 26th and become a part of this learning community!

Registration is at 8:30 a.m. and is FREE.
