

Media Advisory

State legislators, professionals to discuss policy changes at Public Policy forum for Detroit children

Attendees encourages to take part in call to action

Who: Great Start Collaborative-Wayne, the Skillman Foundation, Michigan's Children and the Michigan League for Human Services will host a Public Policy Forum, "Making a Change for Children: Time for Action." State legislators who represent Detroit have been invited to participate to discuss how there are working to foster a better environment for Detroit's children.

What: Making a Change for Children: Time for Action Public Policy Forum. The event will be an opportunity to energize and engage citizens and the legislators who represent them on critical data regarding the health and safety of young children in Detroit. This event will also call for action from policy makers to citizens to develop a stronger foundation for Detroit's children.

Topics will include education, health and basic needs for families.

When: Friday, February 20, 2009, 10 a.m. – noon

Where: Wayne County Community College – Eastern Campus
5901 Conner Ave., Detroit, MI 48213

Public Contact:

RSVP by February 16 via phone at (734) 285-4001 or online at www.greatstartcollaborativewayne.org

Media Contact:

For media interviews or for more information, contact Melody Moore via phone at (734) 673-5854 or via email melodym@moore-communications.com